

[The page contains faint, illegible markings.]

MAINE, March 27. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Maine Central and Northern Railway Company was held at the Hotel Portland, Monday evening, and presented the report of the Board of Directors. The report showed that the earnings of the road during the year were $1,614,737. Paul out for ordinary working expenses, $1,000,000.00; interest and rent, $600,000.00; leaving net earnings, $614,737.00. The Board of Directors recommended that the earnings be distributed as follows: $1,000,000.00 to the stockholders, $1,000,000.00 to the Maine Central and Northern Railway Company, and $1,000,000.00 to the Maine Central and Northern Railway Company. The Board of Directors also recommended that the earnings be distributed as follows: $1,000,000.00 to the stockholders, $1,000,000.00 to the Maine Central and Northern Railway Company, and $1,000,000.00 to the Maine Central and Northern Railway Company.

WASHINGTON, March 27. The resolution of the Senate to reimburse expenses in contesting the seat in the Senate of the unexpired term of W. P. Flanders, Senator from New Hampshire, is reported to have passed the Senate by a vote of 50 yeas, 50 nays.

[illegible][illegible]

ARCHIVE